3 Day Executive Administration & Risk Management Programme

29-31 March 2010

Extend your stay in Hong Kong and develop your skills in the business of Rugby.

Following on from the Hong Kong Sevens tournament, the IRB Administrators Academy are offering the opportunity to develop your administrative, management and leadership skills within the business of sport and events.

The 3 day programme will present a rare forum for discussion with academic experts and industry practitioners, addressing core strategic and operational issues faced in today's challenging and dynamic environment.

Don't miss this opportunity to rub shoulders with like minded individuals, and thought leaders within the business of rugby.

Ideal for;

- Chief Executives, Senior Management and Board Directors within rugby unions;
- National/International rugby organisation staff;
- Volunteers with important management or decision making functions;
- Consultants and suppliers to the sector
